My Dear Jo.

Who said you couldn't write a letter. Hope you take another spell. That was fine and I am pretty sure I won't do as well for I sure feel tod. sore at everything in general. But I know if you were here so be O.K. Everything is going wrong.
When I went in yesterday I missed Paul as he was forning out to the sun so this morning after I had got my truck all loaded a fellow came around & gave me a note from Paul tell me to bring the rest of the foot & some gas. Well as I was loaded I didn't want to unload so came on with out them. you can imagine what I got when I got here. It made me mad because I worked all yesterday after I got in Glade on the car & brought out a big load of stuff. which I showed of done because Grady is going up in my car tomorrow & so just my best & must get to go up Fri. as he is taking all the mail from here and & must be able to bring out enough in the small truck. Do you blame me for pelling sore. It look like the more a fellow tries to do the worse it makes it for him for 10 cents I'd quit. I sure can't go this much longer. But as I said before I'll be alright in the morning maybe.

Did you write that letter to your mother? Remember dear I just can't wait too long. Do you know I had some kind of a dream about you last night but I just can't remember it. It was something about a dance. That all I can remember and you think it is awfully because you missed that dance Of course you had of rather been there than where you were?

Couldn't make me believe it Dear I just can't write. I get to thinking about you + wishing you were with me that it makes me feel so badly and to think I won't get to see you for. makes me desperate. Dearie you told me to put all this down but I can't would rather be sitting where I was right before last at this time more so tonight you shall have to make another trip soon

I was kind of tired when I got in yesterday + just believe me I had a terrible time trying to keep awake going in. You see my lady friend only went to Roswell + I had the rest of the trip by my lonesome. And you can just bet I thought + wish you were with me once I wished it a thousand times. And say that lady was a friend of yours she knows Fran. Was the lady Fran wrote a card to that I mailed she said she wanted to meet you awful bad but thought you were going into globe + would get a chance to talk to you said.

She had written you while you were in S.D. the kind of surprised man said I guess you all Jos have + have heard about + I said news travels fast. Fran had told her.
I am going to write as I think so if this seem kind of funny excuse to I noticed your new hat the other morning + like it very much. It would hurt to make another one with the good you got? from the way you wrote sounded as though you was going to make it.
Got your watch fixed + nice send it by this also didn't Well, dear hope you don't make me wait too long. So daddy knows. Probably have something to say when he sees me again. you can't imagine how tough it is for me to wait. I wouldn't mind it so much if I was where I could see you every night. But the way it is now, I just can't only getting to see you once in two week + it seems like two years. and a letter only every other day. no dearie you just can't make me wait have a heart.

now listen Hon I just got to quit + save some for next time good night dear

With lots of love + more kisses yours in waiting
