My Dearest Girl
You kind of surprised me in that letter dear I don't guess I should of said anything about what Grady said he was only joking. But for my part joke be no joke I would rather he keep such things to himself so long as its been said & over with lets forget all about it but continue sending by mail only dear address mine to Roosevelt & then I'll have it to read on the way in Mrs. Frazer is a pretty good friend of mine & she will let me have it as soon as I get there.

Harley. I just can't help but feel jealous. There those fellows are showing you a good time & all. I like I sit & can't do anything. But go ahead if you think you can move for little of them than I. Only I sincerely hope not. I try not to be there, away but see! Then again see!

But to change the subject. The weather is getting rather cool now a coat doesn't feel a bit uncomfortable but it sure makes driving easier. Strange that Paul was just lunched this trip & Curcio I didn't get a chance to say anything to him. Somebody's looking say dear if our luck changes - Paul is coming in in a few days I don't know for sure just what day but shall find out & let you know then come down for I've just got to see you. It seems almost a year since I seen you last. He will probably come in & leave me out there so that you can help me run the place. He might come in this next trip for I got his check today & it he does let call by Brandman's.

& tell them to tell you to call up.

See dear girl I hate to be a bum sport but it looks as though I would have to look out for Roth Holder in place of Floyd or Around all the time. My first opportunity + I shall let you know of the out come. Dearest I dont see how I can wait till the 10th of Nov. I had another long same trip today + I just couldnt help rushing you were with me again. That was sure a dandy trip we had that day regardless of punture. I havent had a puncture for so long — (Keep quiet). You might of been kind enough to send me some of those good things you are cook ing. I havent cleaned up yet + I feel so dirty I am uncomfortable so excuse me till next trip

With lots of love + kisses
As ever yours
Peggy
