Dearest Girl

Now who said I could't use one of these things it been so long since I've had my hands on one that it goes kind of slow. But beings as I havent any thing much to do I might as well pass it away on this may I not. I should be painting but you see as I said before I am at present MANAGER of this city of ANGLERS INN and I'll do just as I please so here I am. And would be perfectly satisfied if you were only here. Might I be writing thss for nothing (this thing slips a cog once in a while) you might suprise me Wednesday and come down. Wish I had an aeroplane and I might come up after you gee! but this is a punk machine. Tell me something I can write Terrible lonesome place this this morning nobody home but the clock and that is ready to strike. I almost wish there was a school madam around here this morning so as I could take her out boat riding. I love those school mams so well. Somebody said something very nice about you this morning We were eating breakfast and something was said about the lady passengers I had been carrying and I said there ought to be a few more pretty girls up in Payson. Then this party spoke up and said that he had only seen one real nice girl gouup there and that was the one you took to Globe about a week ago and brought back the other day and sat down there on the lake shore with till about four o'clock in the morning. I think he must of been mistaken about the lakeshore part but even if I do say it myself he was right about the other. I think I'll have to continue this till this afternoon and do some painting for if I don't have much done by the time brother Paul comes back he might be real angry with me and that would never do

As I have already spent so much time on this sheet I'll send it as news it terrible scarce. That was a terrible short letter of yours dear but so long as I know how hard it is to write a long one I can make it seem one Dear so you know I am glad for one reason you didn't come came before Grady got here + so I was some what relieved when Grady got here without you. But gee dear I want to see you so bad I could quit my job to come + see you. I guess my mother will be here before so very long + say when I come to think about it. It will be just fine she will be here by the 10th I hope a week or so ahead. I know she can + will make things right between Paul + myself. Gee but I hope she gets here by then want that be dandy, thank goodness I lose my job as manager tonight. They all can who wants to but not for me + you have one of those jobs also - will don't work too hard it don't pay. I tried something this time + find out I get as much thanks for not doing much as I would if I had of done a whole lot. In as case though of course its different.

I sent in by the fellow they had in my place to get that medicine + Paul got it + has 20¢ charges for express against it but don't pay any attention to it. He doesn't know who its for is why he done it, and he is not going to find out if I can help.

Did you say you were going to a picture show tomorrow night. Honest if I don't get to see you before very long I'll get real desperate. I have just about reached the end of my story this time. I would rather you be here. But if this letter seems short to no sign my love is the same for I care more for you every day.

With love + kisses
As ever yours
Bryan
