

Payson Ariz
Sept. 5, 1916.

My dear.

I didn't mean to get your curiosity around once more. Papa spoke very well of you, he just wanted me to be happy and gave me a little advice and so on. We were just talking things over that was all.

Dee dear but I sure am glad you found your bill book how did it happen?

So you went in swimming with a couple of ladies did you? I'll bet you had a good time

Mr Bryan Harrison
Anglers Inn
Arizona

Were the ladies good swimmers?

I burnt my little finger the other day and it dont feel good when I write it raised a great big blister.

Yesterday I stayed home all after noon and tatted. and the after noon Fran and I went down town for a while and then we went over to Hoods and I tatted some more and Fran embroidered. I didnt know I could sit still so long something very unusual for me

Yesterday Papa went to the dentist and
had his bottom teeth
pulled and he didn't feel very good so I
helped him do the chores. The little
colt got caught in the
barb wire fence the other day and got a
little cut on his leg
so I helped Papa
doctor him he ~~is~~ held him while I put the medicine on gee but I felt smart. Ha! Ha!

I can't think of any thing to tell you dear
if you were here. I believe I could talk

a blue streak but I sure am having a
hard time writing.
Poor Fran is out in the kitchen getting
snapper all by herself.
next wed. seems an
awfully long way off.
but I guess it will be here before I know it
I hope so.

I got a card from Grace Lowthian today and
she tells me that
Virginia Wentworth's
mother wont let Virginia
even write to Floyd
any more. Her mother
must be awfully mean.
believe me if I was

Virginia I would write
any way. ~~At~~ Grace
also said it was
delightfully warm
down there.

Well dearie Fran
just said supper was ready so I will say
by by for this time
lots & lots of love & kisses
Jo

I have had my supper
and am sitting on the front porch it sure is
swell this evening.
wish you were here
Fran is writing to Harley so I thought I would write you a few more lines. There is a nasty old mosquito buzzing round
