College Party At Holloway Home

A "Wittenberg college" party was given recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holloway on Washington ave., with the four students from Salem who made up the brass quartet of the school, acting as hosts. The quartet includes William Holloway, Clair King, Dale Leipper and Marion McArtor. Alumni, students of the college and high school seniors were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blunt of Youngstown and Prof. and Mrs. Blough from Springfield were guests. Mr. Blunt is a field secretary at the school and Prof. Blough, a member of the faculty. Prof. Blough made an address and showed colored movies of the school, campus, activities and college life at Wittenberg. The hosts, making up the brass quartet, played several numbers and the mothers of the four boys served a lunch.

Kiwanis Officers Inducted By Tenth Division Chieftain

Carl Willman, New President of Service Organization, Assumes Duties For Year

With Seward E. Daw, Tenth division lieutenant governor, in charge of the ceremonies, officers of the Salem Kiwanis club were installed at a dinner meeting last night in the Memorial building.

Carl Willman, new president of the service organization, was presented the gavel by retiring President Byron Maxson.

Addresses were given by the new club chief and by Lieutenant Governor Daw, each of whom confined his remarks largely to the work ahead of the organization.

Short talks also were given by other members of the new official staff of the club, including Harold Williams, vice president; F. J. Wise, secretary; and Gerald W. McKee, treasurer. Announcement also was made by Lieutenant Governor Daw of Wise's appointment as Ohio district publicity chairman.

A past president's button was presented to Maxson by Cecil K. Scott, retiring lieutenant governor, and the presentation of the president's insignia, to Willman, was made by Daw.

An attractive musical program was presented by the Wittenberg College Brass Quartet, including four young men who were graduated together from Salem High school. The group includes Clair King, Marion McArtor, William Holloway and Dale Leipper.

Carl F. Willman

Salem Boys in Choir

The A capella choir of Wittenberg college, Springfield, will sing over WTAM, Cleveland, at 4:30 p. m. Friday, it was announced here today.

Four Salem boys, Marion McArtor, Dale Leipper, William Holloway and Clair King, are members of this choir.

Roundup Is Held By College Group

The Wittenberg college brass quartet composed of Salem boys furnished music for the program at the Wittenberg college roundup held Thursday evening at the Tippecanoe club, near Youngstown.

In the quartet are Marion McArtor, Clair King, William Holloway and Dale Leipper.

Dinner was served at 6:30. Dr. Rees Edgar Tulloss, president of the college, gave an address. Group singing of college songs and a movie showing the college activities were features.

College Quartet Entertains Quota

The Wittenberg college brass quartet, comprised of Clair King, Dale Leipper, William Holloway and Marion McArtor, Salem boys, gave a group of selections at a dinner meeting of the Quota club Tuesday evening at the Fleischer Inn, East State st. They played the following numbers: "Deep in Your Eyes," "Down by the Old Stream" and "Tea for Two."

John Paul Ollaman, student at Grove City college, Grove City, Pa., who is home for the holidays, sang three solos, "Christmas Song," "Bells in Jordan" and "Sunshine of Your Smile." He was accompanied by Homer Taylor. Taylor also played a piano solo, "Christmas Fantasia."

The program was well received. An interesting letter was read from Miss Ruth Beach, of Tucson, Ariz., formerly of Salem.

Miss Iva Hoopes and Mrs. Mary Oesch-Bare were in charge of the meeting. Miss Josephine Kastrup, East Liverpool, was a guest.

Officers will be elected at a meeting of the club on Jan. 9.

College Musicians Play for Kiwanis

Members of the Wittenberg college brass quartet, four Salem boys, and their mothers were guests of honor at the meeting of the Kiwanis club at the Memorial building Thursday.

A program of popular selections was played by the quartet composed of Clair King, William Holloway, Marion McArtor and Dale Leipper, freshmen at Wittenberg college. While students at Salem High they were known as the Salem brass quartet.

Mrs. W. D. King, Mrs. Perry McArtor, Mrs. Robert Leipper and Mrs. H. R. Holloway, mothers of the musicians, attended. Mrs. King made a short talk in behalf of the mothers.

President C. K. Scott presided at the meeting and Gerald McKee was in charge of the program.

In Wittenberg Band

At Wittenberg college, where preparations are under way for the annual homecoming of the alumni Oct. 20, much interest attaches itself to the Wittenberg band, under the direction of Prof. Anton J. Bjorklund.

Robert Wentz of Salem is a new member of the band. Other leading members of the unit from Salem are: Marion McArtor, William Holloway, Clair King, and Dale Leipper, well known as the brass quartet. The quartet, beginning its second year, is popular in Wittenberg musical circles.

Will Sing at Dayton

Four Salem boys, Dale Leipper, Marion McArtor, Clair King, and William Holloway, students at Wittenberg college, Springfield, are members of Wittenberg choir, a capella, which is scheduled to sing at Dayton on March 11. The following day the choir will sing in Cincinnati and from there go to Louisville, Ky. Then to Indianapolis and Richmond, Ind., and from there back to Springfield. On Friday after the tour the Salem boys will play at Bellefontaine.

Starting on Sunday, March 18, the choir goes to Toledo, Finley, Mansfield, Akron, Cleveland, and Canton. They will be at Canton on March 25.

CIRCLE 4

On Wednesday members of Circle 4 of the Methodist Episcopal church had a coverdish dinner at the church for the members and their families.

The program of entertainment included a group of selections by the Wittenburg college brass quartet, composed of William Holloway, Dale Leipper, Marion McArtor and Clair King, and a group of readings by Rella Wolfgang, aged eight, of Leetonia. Miss Dorothy McConner played two piano solos. Mrs. Mary Pine read a Christmas story.

This circle furnished two Christmas baskets for needy families, who are members of this church.

The January meeting of the circle will be with Mrs. James Goodwin, East Pershing ave.

Trio Will Control Music Fraternity

Three Salem sophomores at Wittenberg college will control the activities of Phi Mu Alpha, honorary music fraternity, next year.

Following a recent election, William Holloway, 477 Washington st., was named president; Clair King, 337 Sixth st., vice president; and Marion McArtor, 1200 South Lincoln ave., treasurer and warden.

Dr. F. L. Bach, head of the music department at Wittenberg, is supreme councillor of the group.

The three sophomores, with Dale Leipper, 625 East Sixth st., Salem, make up the Wittenberg Brass quartet.

McArtor has also achieved additional honors. He has written arrangements of Bulgarian and finale dances to be used at the 18th annual Alma Mater pageant at the college on June 8.

Brass Quartet on Air

Four Wittenberg college sophomores from Salem, who have become popular on the campus as the Wittenberg Brass quartet, will broadcast from Station WHIO in Dayton at 8:30 p. m. Sunday.

Members of the group whose instrumental arrangements are heard at many college and city functions are: Clair King, 337 Sixth st., trumpet; Marion McArtor, 1200 South Lincoln ave., trumpet; William Holloway, 477 Washington st., French horn; and Dale Leipper, 625 East Sixth st., bass horn.

All are players in the Wittenberg band.
