Council Meeting

ROBERT G. CHERRY

MRS. DALE F. LEIPPER

Robert G. Cherry of College Station was the master of ceremonies for the 19th annual meeting of the Bluebonnet Girl Scout Council meeting in Waco at Baylor University on Jan. 23. Cherry, who is serving an unexpired term as second vice-president of the council, was installed for another term. Also elected to the board of directors was Mrs. Dale F. Leipper, of Bryan, who is to be District 1 chairman. Albert Roberts of Hearne was elected as member-at-large and Mrs. Lannes Hope as a member of the council nominating committee.

Receiving the Thanks Badge, the highest award made in the Girl Scout program, was Mrs. Dale F. Leipper. Others receiving the badge were Mmes. C. L. Sligh and J. C. Doss of Waco. Miss Celia Donaldson of Valley Mills, president of the senior planning board, made the presentation for the Council.

Leonard L. Holloway, president of Mary Hardin-Baylor College in Belton, was the principal speaker. His subject "Values to Hold — Worlds to Explore," is the theme for national Girl Scouts USA for the triennium, 1967-70.

The Piper Project, a national Girl Scout recruitment program for 1967-70, was introduced by troops of cadette and senior Girl Scouts, and the Council piper co-ordinator, Mrs. Robert S. Nixon of Waco, was introduced.

The judge gave three children to the husband saying that if he couldn't keep them he should put them in foster homes. An adult shouldn't have them, the judge decreed.

The husband has put the baby in a foster home. He insists it isn't his. The baby ended up without a father or children. In any way she can get her baby back—FRIEND

Dear Friend:

I think she should be allowed to go back — and come the child for the divorce. I beg for the help of the help of the counselor, perhaps arranged.—H
